

OHIO SIDE REPUBLICANS ARE WINNERS.

The Republican Ticket Wins in Martin's Ferry, Bellaire, Barnesville and St. Clairsville.

BRIDGEPORT DIVIDES HONORS

Mayor Neininger Being Re-Elected Mayor—Pease Township Republican Ticket Wins.

The over-the-river Republicans did very well yesterday, thank you! Notwithstanding the awful fight made on the Republican nominees in Martin's Ferry, Mr. Goodhue, the Republican candidate for mayor, wins on a small majority, and the rest of the Republican ticket wins on good majorities, with the exception of Judge Cochran, for solicitor, who is defeated by Cooke, the Democratic nominee.

The Pease township Republican ticket goes through all right, as does that in Putney township (Bellaire).

In Bridgeport, honors were divided, Mayor Fred Neininger, Democrat, being re-elected on a close vote over Mr. Charles Junkins, Republican. For marshal, Sol Douds, Republican, wins by a good majority.

In Bellaire, the Republican ticket went through without a scratch, and the vote was twenty-four larger than in the state election last fall.

In Barnesville the Republican ticket wins. Ditto in St. Clairsville, where ex-Sheriff Scott is elected mayor.

GOODHUE ELECTED

Mayor of Martin's Ferry, After a Hard Struggle—Judge Cochran Defeated For City Solicitor—Ervin Elected Marshal.

Despite the Democratic weather yesterday, the Martin's Ferry Republicans elected every man on their city ticket, with one exception, and that of city solicitor. A great deal of interest was taken in the election and the vote was an exceedingly large one, the total being 1,533, against 1,481 at the spring election two years ago. The vote yesterday was considerably larger than the one cast at the last state election. Nearly the entire vote of both parties was out, the maximum total vote of the city being estimated at 1,700. Goodhue and Ervin, the Republican candidates for mayor and marshal, won out with a good majority, as did the other Republicans elected. The small Democratic victories are city solicitor, council and assessor in the Fifth ward and council in the Fourth ward. It was a decided Republican victory and one of which the party may well feel proud.

The vote on the city ticket was as follows:

	1	2	3	4	5	Tot.

Martin's Ferry Precinct.

In Martin's Ferry precinct, the only local officer voted for was assessor, and W. W. Taylor, (Rep.), defeated the alleged most popular man in the precinct, Ross Goff, (Dem.), by a majority of 24. This notwithstanding the fact that the precinct is Democratic. The vote on township offices was as follows:

Trustee—Albert Moore, (R.), 89; George Krim, (D.), 109.

NEININGER ELECTED

Mayor of Bridgeport, but Republican Candidate for Marshal Wins.

The election in Bridgeport yesterday was hotly contested, and a very fair vote was gotten out. The fight for the mayoralty was the leading feature, and the Democratic nominee, Mayor Fred Neininger, secured re-election by a majority of nineteen votes over his Republican opponent, Charles Junkins. For marshal, Sol Douds, the Republican nominee, won over his Democratic opponent, Albert Burke, by a majority of eighty votes. For city clerk, Rice, the Republican nominee, was successful over Coss by a majority of sixty-one. Breckon, Democrat, was elected city treasurer by a majority of ninety votes. Bellaire Republicans

Win a Glorious Victory, Their Entire City and Township Tickets Going Through by Good Majorities—A Record in the Fifth Ward.

The election in Bellaire was perhaps as quiet a one as was ever held there. The usual number of workers were about all of the polling places and the friends of the various candidates got in their button-holing at the last moment. The Republicans were alive to the danger of a light vote and realized that the Democrats seemed to have luck in the weather, hence they put more energy into the effort to get out the vote. But there were some who would not go out of their way to vote and many were lost because of the weather and an apparent indifference.

Notwithstanding these handicaps, the vote polled was twenty-four more than at the state election last fall. The vote aggregated over 2,000 in the city.

The result is more than satisfactory to the Republicans, who made practically a clean sweep, the Democrats securing nothing on the general ticket. The majorities for the Republicans range from 200 to 500, but the exact figures could not be secured this morning, owing to a discrepancy in the count as kept by the two clerks in the Fifth ward. When the discrepancy was discovered, shortly before midnight, there were but ninety-three votes remaining to be counted, but the judges ordered that all the votes should be recounted and it is not expected that the vote recount will be finished before 4 o'clock this morning.

Mayor I. T. Freese (R.) is re-elected over his Democratic opponent, Frank Williams, (D.), by about 200 majority.

For marshal, James S. Johnston, (R.), wins over M. G. Lynskey, (D.), by 250 majority.

Cook Danford, Republican candidate for city solicitor, is winner over Fred Spriggs, majority, 500.

J. M. DuBois, Republican candidate for city treasurer, will have 500 majority over S. G. Crow.

W. P. Crozier, Republican candidate for street commissioner, wins over L. T. Myers by a majority of about 400.

W. S. Carroll (R.) for water works trustee, defeats C. L. Driggs, majority about 200.

For school board, the winners are J. W. Heathington and George Walters, Republicans, over H. P. Rodewig and J. H. McGraw, majority, 150 and 250.

Council—First ward, J. R. Seabrook (R.) defeats Dr. Pierson, 87 majority; Second ward, Moses Duga (R.) defeats John McKeely (D.), 16 majority; Third ward, Fred Wasserman, (D.) defeats Peter Hughes, majority, 30; Fourth ward, August Bahr, (R.) defeats Joseph Glasser, majority, about 40; Fifth ward, George McLean, (R.) defeats J. M. Crouse, majority, about 75.

Assessors—First ward, Donald McDonald (R.); Second ward, J. M. Conners (D.); Third ward, C. H. Wolf, (R.).

Fourth ward, W. H. Thompson, (R.); Fifth ward, Herman Goetze, (R.); township Robinson Workman, (D.); West Wheeling, D. S. Craig (D.).

In the township at large, the Republicans elected their three candidates for justices of the peace, Messrs. F. S. Mason, J. W. Morrell and J. M. Richardson.

For township trustees, J. W. Paul and Milton Thompson, Republicans, won. Amos Roscoe, Republican, is elected township clerk.

For township constable, Fred Hazel, Republican, wins.

GOOD FOR ST. CLAIRSVILLE.

The Republican Ticket, With an Exception of Two, Successful.

The election at St. Clairsville was without excitement or particular features, except in the case of the marshalship, the present incumbent, Jacob Martin, being re-elected on an independent ticket. Otherwise the Republican ticket went through with a sweep, the Democrats being doted out a lone councilman. Marshal Martin, who has been in office for twelve years, evidently has a cinch on the job of the strongest kind, and he possesses the happy faculty of never being too pronounced on any question.

The result was as follows:

Mayor—M. M. Scott, R., 168; Albert Lawrence, D., 105.
City treasurer—J. H. Boroff, R., 141; T. F. McBride, D., 131.
Marshal—Wm. Harris, R., 86; Charles Nettell, D., 53; Jacob Martin, Ind., 138.
Council—Theodore Mitchell, R., 132; Theodore Ayres, R., 146; Marshal Thompson, R., 131; Dan Carroll, D., 117; Louis Murdoch, D., 138; Jno. A. Thompson, D., 122. Messrs. Mitchell and Ayres, Republicans, and Murdoch, Democrat, were elected.

Barnesville Solidly Republican.

The Republicans swept the platter clean at Barnesville, taking everything in sight. The citizens voted on local option, and the "Drys" won over the "Wets." The town will, therefore, be without license for the ensuing two years. The election was strongly contested, and the Republican victory was the occasion of much jubilation.

WEDNESDAY'S CONVENTION

Of Sixteenth Ohio Republicans at Bellaire Will Renominate Gill by Acclamation—Committees Have Completed the Arrangements.

This evening some of the Republicans of the Sixteenth Ohio congressional district will gather in Bellaire for the congressional convention to be held tomorrow. Belmont county will be stationed at the Globe hotel, where the two aspirants for delegate to the national convention at Philadelphia will have rooms. The Carroll delegation will be at the Exchange, Harrison at the Anderson, while Jefferson and Monroe will be at the Windsor, where quarters have been provided for Congressman Gill and his home people.

The convention will convene in the Opera House at 10 o'clock, central standard time. The county delegations will caucus at their respective headquarters half an hour before the convention is to meet. Rev. R. S. Coffey, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will open the convention with prayer, and Hon. W. T. Perry, of Harrison county, will preside as temporary chairman, and Dr. R. A. Ferguson, of Monroe, will be secretary.

The outlook for a very harmonious and enthusiastic convention. There is not a ripple anywhere in the district except in Belmont, and this will be smoothed out when the delegates get together.

AMUSEMENTS.

In "Three Little Lambs" company which will appear at the Opera House, Thursday evening, April 5, are several favorite artists. Miss Marie Cahill, the girl with the cockney accent, who sang "Igh Society" in "A Runaway Girl," when presented here last season under the management of the late Augustin Daly, is one of them. Others are Miss Clara Palmer, Tom Hadaway and Harold Vizard, all of whom will be remembered as members of the same organization. Raymond Hitchcock, who was long the leading comedian of the celebrated Castle Square Opera Company; Miss Nellie Braggins, who will be remembered as the bright and winsome girl who played Doll Primrose in "The Highwayman"; William T. Carleton, the famous baritone; William E. Philip, formerly the principal tenor of the Bon-tonians, and Edmund Lawrence, who was identified with Francis Wilson for many seasons. The author of "Three Little Lambs" is R. A. Barnett, who wrote "Igh Society" and "Jack and the Beanstalk."

STREET CAR CASES

Considered Yesterday in the United States Court, and

OSCAR HOLDERMAN LET GO

The Case Against 'Squire Riddle Continued Until Next Term—Those Against Policemen Gately and Fisher Are to be Argued on Demurrers To-Day—Grand Jury on Wednesday.

Yesterday the spring term of the United States district court, Judge John J. Jackson on the bench, opened. Several of the Whaling street car strike cases, continued from the last term, were brought up Monday. The grand jury will be called to-morrow, and a number of counterfeiting and postoffice cases will be brought to its attention by District Attorney S. C. Burdett. The term will continue through the week.

In the case of the United States vs. Oscar Holderman, of Benwood, charged with interference with deputy marshals during the street car strike last spring, the matter was nolleed on suggestion of the district attorney. Judge Jackson, however, took occasion to haul Holderman over the coals sharply. He said that while it might be true, as the defendant claimed, the act complained of was committed in a fit of excitement, yet, but for the recommendation of the district attorney, the case would have been brought to trial, and it would have been no trifling matter. Holderman seemed greatly relieved to escape so lightly, and said he regretted the trouble.

The case of the United States vs. Squire Henry Riddle, charged with interfering with United States court officers during the strike, at Benwood, was continued until the next term of court.

The case of the United States vs. Police Officers Gately and Fisher, also of Benwood, on a similar charge, will be argued on a demurrer to-day.

Packed to the Doors.

A Carter melo-drama at popular prices, and the certainty that it would be presented in an artistic manner, was the magnet which drew an audience to the Grand last night that fairly packed the theatre to the doors. The production was satisfying in every sense. The special scenery was very elaborate and realistic, and a competent cast sustained the different roles. The singing and comedy work by "The Two Pucks," a mites and master yet in their "teens," was a stellar feature. This afternoon "The Tornado" will be repeated, and to-night the Huntley-Jackson company will present another of Carter's famous scenic melo-dramas, "The Fast Mail."
